Two Injured in Kitchen Blast at Diamond Cafe

An explosion in the Diamond Cafe kitchen about 6:30 a.m. today left one person seriously burned, another with a head and shoulder injury and caused considerable damage. The blast could be heard for several blocks.

Seriously burned was Carrie DeJong, Negro cook. She suffered first degree burns about the face and secondary burns on the neck and shoulder. Another Negro cook, Clara Muldrew, suffered a cut over her eye and a shoulder injury when a light fixture fell on her in the first of the two room kitchens.

The explosion occurred in the second room of the Diamond kitchen. Apparently a gas valve had been left open. When the cook advanced toward the stove with a lighted match it blew up when she was several feet from it, knocking off the doors, breaking outside window panes, shattering jars of food and blasting down a large light fixture, which fell on the Muldrew woman, in the first room of the kitchen.

Bob Carroll, owner and operator, who was standing in the first section of the kitchen was knocked off his feet but was not injured.

Extent of the damage could not be immediately determined. The main part of the cafe was not damaged. However, Mr. Carroll indicated he would not be able to reopen before Saturday morning, June 7.

Handful of Votes Separate Ike-Taft in South Dakota; Kefauver Takes California

Sirius Falls, S. D. June 4 (P)—A handful of votes may tip the balance today in South Dakota's presidential primary battle between Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

As counting of yesterday's record Republican balloting resumed, Taft clung to a slender, narrowing lead in a contest for 14 nominating delegates and the prestige of a victory in the final ballot box test before the Chicago convention.

The count, from 1,722 of the state's 1,947 precincts, was: Taft 61,730; Eisenhower 60,993.

With an estimated 15,000 votes yet to be tabulated, the winner's margin seemed likely to be only a few hundred at most.

There was some talk of a possible recount, which could delay final selection of the state's delegation. Neither side wanted to commit itself on that point, however, until the unofficial tabulation was completed.

Many of the 225 precincts yet unreported lay in the far western area of the state, where Eisenhower was proving himself strong in the cities and towns but Taft was running ahead in the county precincts.

The 14 delegates involved would not change the relative standing of the two major candidates appreciably. Taft had 420 delegates and Eisenhower 387 on the Associated Press tabulation, not counting South Dakota's.

As the race neared its end here, Taft was getting 50.30 per cent of the vote. Eisenhower 49.70 per cent—narrowest margin in any presidential primary this year.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee took the state's eight Democratic delegates in stride. He defeated an unopposed slate which had planned to vote on the first ballot at Chicago for Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, although Humphrey said he wasn't running against his friend Kefauver here.

This and victories elsewhere lifted Kefauver to second place.

Bulletin

Washington, June 4 — Special Counsel for Herman Maxwell, Arkansas Negro convicted three times of raping a white woman, said here today he will seek a Little Rock federal court tomorrow to forestall Maxwell's execution scheduled for Friday.

Harold Flowers Pine Bluff, Ark. attorney, said he will petition the court for a writ of habeas corpus. At the same time, he said, he will ask Gov. Sid McMath to stay the execution pending further court action. If McMath refuses Flowers said he will ask the court itself for a stay.

The attorney said he has refused aid from the American Civil Rights Congress, which offered to help him in Maxwell's defense. The petition to be filed tomorrow will claim that Maxwell did not have counsel at all stages of the legal proceedings against him and that he was sentenced in the absence of counsel.

Flowers also contends that an atmosphere of tenseness throughout the trial in Hope, Ark., prevented the defense from conducting the case properly.

The Supreme Court rejected a final appeal of Maxwell on April 21. He has been held in the death house of the Tucker, Ark., prison farm since August, 1949, when he was first convicted.

Scout Camping at Pioneer Starts Monday

Field Scout Executive, Ralph Johnson will leave Hope Thursday for Camp Pioneer where he will take part in carrying out the camping program of the Caddo Council.

Camp will open officially at 2 p.m. on June 8 and will extend through four weekly sessions ending on July 5 at 2 p.m. The Camp offers a wide variety of activities which include swimming, life saving, archery, riflery, hiking, wide games and many others.

One of the outstanding activities of last year will be repeated this year. This was a Sham Battle in which the camp is about equally divided, each team having three small bags of flour for ammunition and a flour sack for a target.

Any Scout who gets flour on him is out of the game.

Any Scout who is willing to work at it may advance at least one rank during a week at Camp Pioneer. An excellent activity yard is provided for this purpose and a lot of new equipment has been added this year as a result of the Scout Circus held last April.

Already the reservations for the first and second session of camp are filled up. Reservation and information blanks may be secured from the Scout Department of Haynes Bros., for any boy who is interested in attending a session or more at Pioneer. The cost of the week there is extremely low at only $10. This is from $1 to $10 less than most Scout Camps in the region.

Troops 82 and 90 of Hope are expected to camp a large number of Scouts this year. Bob Whitmarsh has reported that Prescott will also camp a large group this year.

Clark Returns From Korea Tour

Tokyo, June 4 (P)—Gen. Mark Clark returned tonight to his United Nations Far East headquarters after a 2-day tour of Korea.

He conferred with President Syngman Rhee on the Korean political crisis, visited the U. N. prisoner of war stockades on Koje Island and talked with front line commanders.

Trouble Brews in South Africa

Capetown, South Africa, June 4 (P)—Bechuanaland police have arrested 38 natives and barricaded Serowe, capital of the British South African Protectorate, to prevent further violence in the native campaign for the return of exiled tribal chieftain Seretse Khama.

Orphan Immigrant to Graduate

Boston, June 4 (P)—Nicholas James Perella, 24, orphaned son of Italian immigrants, who never got a mark under "A" while working his way as a cook's helper through a 4-year course, will graduate summa cum laude next Tuesday from Suffolk University.

Two other colleges refused to admit him in 1948, feeling a commercial high school provided an inadequate background.

In addition, Perella has been awarded a Fulbright fellowship providing a year's study at the University of Aix-En-Provence, southern France. He hopes to become a professor of French literature.

Russians Shoot U. S. Policeman in Border Fray

Berlin, June 4 (P)—An American military policeman was shot and wounded by an East German police border guard on the outskirts of Berlin today.

Maj. Gen. Samuel Mathewson, U. S. commander in Berlin, immediately denounced the shooting as a "barbaric and undisciplined violence by police under Soviet control." He demanded the Russians "severely punish the offender."

A bullet pierced the military policeman's chest and wounded the driver in the leg. The engine also was damaged.

The shooting occurred "without warning or provocation," while the Army vehicle was on routine official patrol on Machnowstrasse near the U. S. sector-Soviet zone boundary, Gen. Mathewson said.

By DAN DE LUCE

Berlin, June 4 (P)—The Russians mysteriously relaxed half of their 2-way blockade of Allied military patrols on Berlin's lifeline autobahn today — one day after the British had laid bloodless siege to the Communists' Radio Berlin building.

Tactical Russian guards let an east-bound American military police jeep travel the 110 mile radio from Western Germany to Berlin after a 10 day ban, but turned back both American and British jeeps which tried to make the trip from Berlin to the West.

American officials, recalling a previous 7-day blockade on the autobahn which started without warning May 8, declined to speculate whether it was really off again. They planned to test the blockade again tonight. The patrols assist any Allied vehicles which may have breakdowns on the autobahn.

Meanwhile, Communist defenders of beleaguered Radio Berlin in the British sector cried defiance at their besiegers.

The score of Russian tommy-guns inside the building weren't talking but their German Communist colleagues on the radio staff jibed at the British sector at dawn yesterday. "Reliability for Soviet security," they said, "is the only consideration in the Western allies have been administering the British said anybody inside the station could get out but no one could get in."

Sergei Dengin, chief of the Soviet Control Commission in Berlin, rushed to see British Commandant Maj. Gen. C. F. Coleman for Continued on Page Two

Steel Workers, Owners Called Into Conference by President Truman

Red Plans for French Strike, Another Flop

Paris, June 4 (P)—A Red attempt to paralyze the French nation with a set-down strike turned into a resounding flop today.

Premier Antoine Pinay, a shy but determined small businessman, met the newest Communist attack head on.

He gave orders to thousands of steelhelmeted policemen and gendarmes, many armed with tear gas bombs and masks, to mobilize throughout the country and let the Communist-led unionists strike — if they did it peacefully.

As a result, most of the three million members of the Communist-controlled General Confederation of Labor (CGT) worked at their normal jobs.

Up to mid-afternoon, industry and transportation were normal.

67 Organization Names Officers, Plans Projects

An organizational group for the Highway 67 Association met in Gurdon, Tuesday afternoon with representatives from Malvern, Arkadelphia, Gurdon, Prescott and Hope making temporary plans for the group.

The first project will be the erection of two highway signs encouraging highway 67 traffic. The group expects to have the signs up in about three weeks.

Temporary officers for the organization are: George Dewes, Arkadelphia, secretary-treasurer, H. C. Clom, Malvern, vice - chairman, Ray Lawrence, Hope, Chairman.

New Bill Would Prevent Strike for 120 Days

Washington, June 4 (P)—The White House today called union management leaders to a meeting tomorrow in a move to end the steel strike.

The invitation went out to leaders of the CIO Steelworkers' Union and to top-level industry spokesmen.

It was sent by John H. Steelman, acting mobilization chief.

Phillip Murray's steelworkers union went on strike Monday minutes after the Supreme Court struck down President Truman's order seizing the nation's steel mills.

Steel industry leaders today accepted the invitation.

A spokesman announced the acceptance at a strategy meeting, presidents and board chairmen, seven of the biggest steel firms in New York.

City Council Handles Only Routine Business

Only routine business was taken up at a meeting of Hope City Council last night.

A resolution was passed allowing the American Legion use of the Elks building as a meeting place. The resolution provides that Legion activities cannot interfere with meetings of the Hope Youth Center.

The group voted to execute a bill of sale of B. Bender for purchase of the Fire Department's old street flusher.

The city treasurer was asked to advertise for bids on roof repairs to the building at Municipal Airport, formerly occupied by the Legion as a meeting place.

Police Chief Baker recommended that the city install blinker lights on each Highway approach to the city and on Highway 29, south at the end of South Main St.

Scout Finance Drive Scheduled in Early October

Eddie Whitman today accepted the Chairmanship of the local Boy Scout Finance Campaign scheduled for early October. This announcement came from Teddy Jones, chairman of the Piney Wood District of the Caddo Area Council.

Mr. Whitman has been interested in all types of youth work for quite some time. He is also an excellent worker in civic activities and an active member of the Hope Kiwanis Club serving as secretary of that club.

The campaign will be coordinated with that of the entire Caddo Area Council in an effort to raise funds to carry out the 1953 Scouting Program of the Council.

Mr. Whitman plans to attend the Council Budget Planning meeting, scheduled to be held on June 22 at Camp Pioneer. At that time the exact amount that will be needed for 1953 will be determined. Teddy Jones also has made plans to attend the planning meeting.

Chairmen for other communities of the district will be announced soon.

$3.4 Billion More Asked for Defense

Washington, June 4 (P)—President Truman today asked Congress for a supplemental appropriation of $3,483,555,440 for the Defense Department for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The funds would be used for military public works, pay increases to military personnel and the Alaska communication system.

"The amounts are 537 million dollars less than the tentative estimates for these items contained in the budget for the fiscal year 1953," the White House announcement said.

The request included $4,980,487,700 for "construction of military public works essential in the expansion and modernization of our armed forces."

Of this amount, $414,515,000 is for the Army, $387,972,740 for the Navy, $1,538,000,000 for the Air Force, and 850 million dollars for the office of the secretary of defense.

Unruly Red Prisoners Hauled Out

Koje Island Korea, June 4 (P)—American infantrymen and tanks today knocked down and burned Russian, North Korean and Chinese flags in three Communist prisoner of war pens, then hauled out unruly prisoner leaders.

Not a shot was fired. The Reds submitted meekly although only a few hours earlier they had boasted they would "fight to the death."

The smartly executed one-two punch at Communist prisoner disobedience destroyed all Red banners that flew today over this once riot-ridden island. But camp authorities expect more may appear tomorrow.

Seventeen anti-Communist prisoners, their hands bound were rescued from one compound.

The soldiers marched 75 other POWs out of a second compound. The group included five Red leaders and possibly some anti-Reds.

A few tear gas grenades were thrown into the American soldiers rushed into the barbed wire enclosures. Later they destroyed POW guard huts with flamethrowers.

Troops of the U. S. Second Division's 38th Regiment executed the operation. Their commander, Lt. Col. William F. Kernan, San Antonio Tex., commented:

"We can go in any of those compounds anytime we want."

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, Koje commander, personally directed two of the operations from a machinegun tower. It was another step in his campaign to bring order inside prisoner enclosures and the fifth time tank-led troops had struck at POW disobedience.

Three companies, of the 38th, led by two tanks, crashed through the gates of Compound 85 at 12:30 p.m. to begin the operation. A third tank stood guard outside.

The infantrymen raced into the central yard of the stockade housing 4,200 POWs and formed a short line to shoulder ring of bayonet steel. They fired a half dozen tear gas grenades as prisoners scurried to tents.

The tanks smashed down three large flagpoles, flying North Korean, Chinese and Russian flags. Troops ripped and burned nine signs tacked to inner barbed wire fences.

MORE

Pfc. Willie Hegwood, 21, Chester, S. C., scaled an arch at the gate and pulled down a painting of North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung.

The operation lasted 15 minutes. Then at 1 p.m. three companies of the 38th and three tanks charged Continued on Page Two

Ballot Drive Planned by Kiwanis Club

A new army will soon be tramping the streets of Hope if plans discussed at Tuesday's Kiwanis Club meeting materialize. It is called the "Ballot Battalion" and is dedicated to an all out campaign against the apathy and indifference of the voting public.

Teddy Jones, past president of the Hope club, discussed the "Ballot Battalion" and pointed out that it would be comprised of representatives of all non-partisan, patriotic community organizations that will join in the campaign to urge every eligible citizen to vote in the coming elections.

In discussing the Ballot Battalion plan Mr. Jones said "The Ballot Battalion is much, much more important than any one individual or one organization. To be successful it must be comprised of every patriotic civic minded group within the entire community. Although the Kiwanis club is suggesting that such a plan be followed the Ballot Battalion must not be used to identify or glorify any particular group. As soon as the Ballot Battalion is formed, we will join with other loyal worthwhile community organizations in a successful campaign to develop an informed and active citizenry."

Special guests of the club to hear this program were Dorsey McRae, President of the Rotary Club, Dr. H. M. Brents, President-Elect of the Lions Club, and Mrs. Paul Klipsch, President of the B&W Club.

Fred Robertson, Commander of the American Legion, and Ralph Johnson, Boy Scout Field Executive outlined the part that their organizations could accomplish in the formation of a Ballot Battalion.

In concluding his remarks about the Battalion Mr. Jones stated: "During the general elections of 1940, only 53.4% of the eligible voters in America went to the polls. In 1950, only 44% voted. Americans are kidding themselves if they think they are living under a representative government, when less than half the people exercise their right of franchise. Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote, and the breakdown in morale in government is largely due to neglect."

Lions See Film on Fishing

Eddie Whitman presented a film on fishing in Mexico at Monday's meeting of the Lions club. Guests were Travis Witherspoon of Dumas and Bryan Ritchie of Prescott.

The Guy Really Must Be Good to Make Even Today's Top Comedians Chuckle at Him

By HAL BOYLE
New York, June 4 (P)—Henry Youngman is known around Broadway as a man so funny even other comedians laugh at him.

This is rare, indeed, as most comedians regard each other in terms of larceny rather than laughter.

But this "comic's comic" is different from most of the breed, who are given to private melancholy. He not only has spent his life making fun. Fun is his life.

Henny, now 48, is one of the nation's top night club entertainers. Some connoisseurs of the industry say he is the equal of Groucho Marx, Fred Allen, Bob Hope or Milton Berle. He often is a guest star on other shows but has never had a national television show of his own.

"After 20 years of knocking around the country, I'd like to have my own show," he said. "If I don't I guess the only way I'll get rich is through my feet."

He explained he had "radio-active toes." And his theory of gaining wealth through them is "to walk barefoot through Canada until I hit a uranium mine."

Comedians stick for a sure-fire fast line or a quick often come to Youngman for help. And he always has one handy — and what happened on the spot. He is a walking file case on thousands of jokes, old, middle-aged and new ones ready to be torn.

"I need a lot," he said. "For a 6-minute show I have to have 40 good jokes."

The curse of Henny, whose babbling in Times Square and who lopez around it like a polar bear in a brown coat, is that he gives away jokes as fast as he can think them up.

"Just a minute," he says, stopping a friend, and begins throwing a last second. All free.

Ad libbing is so natural with him he can't quit. Naturally he likes to get paid. But he has been known to refuse a check.

One of the things Henny does to brighten a dull world is to send a weekly gag to a circle of buddies across America.

"Anything to get a laugh and let people know you're alive," he said. One week he mailed out dollar bills with a note saying: "Hold on to this green piece of paper. It may be worth a dollar someday."

From Miami Beach he sent perfume bottles full of sand bearing the label: "This cost me $30 a day to sit on. Thought you might like some."

To be a professional comic today, Henny says, you have "to have nerve and gall, a great memory, and the ability to take stock jokes and give them a twist that makes them sound alive. You have to be equipped to joke on any subject."

Just to test Henny's own stance to wit, I asked him to make a joke about wives. I should have known better. Without even a pause he began rattling:

"Now, you take my wife — and there's an offer."

"My wife cost me a fortune. She went into a department store, broke her leg — and what happened? They got wrapped in it."

"My wife talks so much that when I got back from Miami her tongue was so burned. Now she's on a new tack. She colors her hair different every week. She's got a convertible top. She's also got the newest thing in hairdos — a peewee cut. Makes her look like a new man."

"I just bought my wife a pink outfit — a nice and a team. Last week she learned how to swim. It is so wonderful. She's so smart. She only drives in safety."

When she sticks her head out the window, I never see her.

Legislature May Act to Ease Loans

"Little Rock, June 4 (P)—"Consumer Finance Commission" is a proposed amendment in the Missouri state constitution to ease credit charges that Kansas Supreme Court has held unconstitutional.

The proposal would amend section of the Constitution limits stated interest charges to 10 per cent by allowing legislature to authorize legal charges that loan can make for services and expenses. The amendment would provide that the difference between the interest and the time sale and "cash" would not be considered interest.

San Francisco, June 4 (AP) — Republican Gov. Earl Warren and Democratic Sen. Estes Kefauver captured California's big delegations to the national conventions with better than 2 to 1 margins today.

Both victories over uncommitted states in yesterday's heavy voting presidential primary came as no surprise. There was possibly wide significance, however, in the double rebuff suffered by Truman Democrats.

Warren won all 70 GOP delegates to back his quest for his party's nomination. He defeated a pro-Taft state technically pledged to Rep. Thomas H. Werdel, who quarreled with the governor's espousal of progressive policies.

Tennessee's Kefauver bowled over a "free choice" state of 68 Democratic delegates headed by Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, but originally organized to support President Truman.

Returns from 10,221 of the state's 18,730 precincts gave Warren, 430,000; Werdel, 203,000.

On the Democratic side 10,070 precincts gave Kefauver 463,016; Brown 200,264.

Republican Sen. William F. Knowland delivered what may be taken as another slap at the administration by sweeping both party nominations for reelection under California's crossfiling system.

California's 44-year-old senior senator, an outspoken foe of Truman's foreign and fair deal programs, trounced Democratic Rep. Clinton McKinnon of San Diego, a Truman supporter, on both tickets.

Both entered on each other's ticket. Knowland was appointed by Warren in 1945 to succeed the late Sen. Hiram W. Johnson, only other senatorial candidate to secure a double victory in a California primary.

The senatorial vote: Democratic (9,701 precincts) Knowland 351,000; McKinnon 217,331.

Republican (9,781 precincts) Knowland 482,124; McKinnon 54,920.

Knowland, best known for his advocacy of greater aid for Nationalist China, said in a statement: "The grave problems confronting us, domestic and foreign, cannot be satisfactorily solved under the Truman administration which, I believe, has lost the confidence of the nation."

Werdel, second term congressman, had told the voters: "Support my state if you're for Taft, Eisenhower or MacArthur" for President.

Warren, whose never been beaten in a state election, charged at the window of the GOP campaign that a small band of party enemies spent a half million dollars to defeat him.

Werdel in conceding the election said that "in view of the huge number of Republicans voting against Mr. Warren, he should seriously reconsider the pro-Now Deal policies that prompted them to turn away from his leadership."

Brown, California's attorney general since 1950, conceded defeat by Kefauver and pledged "our tireless, enthusiastic support" in backing the Democratic nominee, whether Kefauver or someone else.

Not counting yesterday's results, The Associated Press tabulation of GOP delegate strength — based on known and conceded alignments — gives Taft a 420, 10, 37 lead over Eisenhower.

Among Democrats, Sen. Estes Kefauver bowled over rival uncommitted states by two-to-one margins in South Dakota and California yesterday. The lanky Tennessee state picked up eight votes in South Dakota and 98 in California.

These — plus the 150 he already had and 18 previously pledged Maryland delegates named yesterday at a convention — ran Kefauver's total to 244 in the Associated Press tally of Democratic delegates. Nearest him is Georgia's Sen. Richard Russell with 88 1/2, followed by Mutual Security Administrator W. Averell Harriman with 83 1/2.

Democratic nomination at the July 31 convention requires 610.

The strike, called by the CIO as a protest of the arrest of Jacques Duclos, noted Communist party boss, was the worst failure the Communists have met west of the Iron Curtain in years.

Paris, June 4 (AP) — Communist efforts to paralyze Paris with a 24-hour airdown strike appeared to fail flat today. Work was normal in most factories and the metropolis showed almost no sign of obedience to the Red strike call.

Steel helmeted police, many armed with tear gas bombs and gas masks, blanketed the city, however, to prevent any violent Red demonstration against the West.

The Communist-controlled General Confederation of Labor (CGT) ordered the strike in the capital as a protest against the arrests last week of France's top Red, Party Secretary General Jacques Duclos, and Andre Stille, editor of the party paper l'Humanite.

But like the abortive general walkout the CGT called for all France after the arrests, today's demonstration appeared to have fizzled.

A communiqué from the Public Works Ministry, issued at 9:30 a. m., listed only scattered incidents of delays in transportation or other public projects. All were outside Paris. The chief stoppage was a strike by tugboat crews at Marseilles, delaying movement of ships in the harbor.

Paris, buses, subways and suburban trains ran on schedule.

Nine Convicts Back in Cells

Princeton, N. J., June 4 (AP) — Nine hardened criminals were back in their cells today in the New Jersey State Prison, their sitdown strike at an end.

The nine walked out of a small rooming house and unescorted yesterday after holding out for at least a week. Warden William M. Carey announced.

Just what convinced the convicts to quit their strike was not disclosed.

They had demanded a revised parole system, more recreation, better food and a change in the arrangements in the prison's visitation room. The convicts acted as a grievance committee for the prison's 1,300 inmates.

Reds Again Bring in Issue of Prisoners

Munsan, Korea, June 4 (AP) — United Nations and Communist truce negotiators today exchanged strongly worded notes on prisoners of war. The Reds backed their demand with a renewed threat that Red armies in Korea might march.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il laid on the Panmunjom conference table a written protest against what the Reds termed "barbarous and cowardly" treatment of captured Reds on Koje Island. He reminded the Allies of earlier warnings that Red armies would not sit idle while Communist soldiers are "massacred."

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. demanded that the Reds "without further delay" account for nearly 1,000 United Nations soldiers believed captured by the Reds but never listed by them. The senior U. N. Command delegate's note listed 91 names, mostly Americans, to add to 895 names compiled by the U. N. since December.

The names will not be made public, Allied officer said, to avoid raising false hopes among relatives.

The 34-minute session produced no progress toward settlement of the truce-blocking issue of what to do about 100,000 captured Reds which Allied screening showed refused to be repatriated in the event of an armistice. Only 70,000 Allied-held POWs have said they would return to Red soil without a fight.

The Communists demand that all their captured soldiers be returned. The Allies say no one will be forced to return.

At Communist insistence, another session is scheduled tomorrow at 11 a. m. (9 a. m. Wednesday EST).

Nam discarded the mild tones he had used in the three previous sessions and delivered "a particularly vicious and emotional type of Communist propaganda barrage," the U. N. communiqué said.

The Communist general repeated his charges of Allied mistreatment of captured Reds and accused Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East commander of saying the U. N. would: "Continue to slaughter our captured personnel with the maximum amount of force and the least amount of blood to be spilled as far as the U. N. forces are concerned."

Clark, on a visit to Koje Monday, said the U. N. would not tolerate nonsense from the POWs and force would be used if necessary to enforce orders.

Students Buck Racial Barriers

Ithaca, N. Y., June 4 (AP) — A white youth and a Negro girl whose campus romance encountered college disapproval exchanged marriage vows here today.

Robert McAllester, 23, and Grace Cunningham, 22, of Berkeley, Calif., arrived here yesterday from Earlham College in Richmond, Ind. They were accompanied by McAllester's mother, Mrs. Allen McAllester.

McAllester and Miss Cunningham were graduated Monday from the small Quaker school.

Asked by a reporter whether he and his fiancée had considered the obstacles to interracial marriage, McAllester replied that they had tried to consider such obstacles so far as they were able. He added: "We will meet each thing as it comes. We'll go forward with certain faith that it won't be as bad as many people picture it to be."

After their engagement became known, the college urged him to leave the campus and continue his studies, McAllester said. The youth finished work for his degree by mail.

President Thomas E. Jones of Earlham said the college, despite a non-segregation policy on the campus, discouraged interracial marriages.

truce talks last night, but the British kept up their siege and the Communists showed no letup in their slow squeeze on the Western-held half of the former German capital.

The radio remained on the air despite the bloodless blockade and continually denounced the British for "an illegal provocation" which will "receive its deserved rebuff."

In its newscasts the station continued the same kind of anti-West propaganda for which it has been notorious since the start of the cold war.

Outside a combined force of about 200 British military police, soldiers and German police maintained their siege.

After a full day of silence toward the British action, the entire Russian-controlled press in Berlin chorused denunciation of the British "provocation."

The station's chief political commentator, Karl Eduard von Weizsäcker, interviewed by telephone, declared coherently that the radio's staff would hold out against the blockade. Unconfirmed reports said the Communists have enough supplies for a long holdout.

Despite the British squeeze play, the Communists kept hold of the main news whose source leaked out the latest rumors to this divided city and continued building their security belts to seal off the West-occupied sectors from the East-occupied sectors from the West.

Woman Red Almost Certain to Be Purged

Vinna, Austria, June 4 (AP) — Romanian Foreign Minister Ana Pauker, one-time tough darling of international Communism, seemed destined today for a Red purge. Her home-town Radio Bucharest accused her of being pro-capitalist and counter-revolutionary.

Western sources expressed belief that hefty, har-visaged Mrs. Pauker and two former ministers who also were attacked in the broadcast were being made scapegoats for Red Romania's current economic woes.

The 59-year-old daughter of a rabbi last week was kicked out of the Romanian Communist party's politburo. For the moment, at least, she still holds the foreign ministry.

The Bucharest broadcast accused Mrs. Pauker and two partners in disgrace — former Finance Minister Vasile Luca and former Interior Minister Teohari Georgescu — of reducing the country to a state of anarchy.

It declared that Mrs. Pauker's removal from the politburo was in the interest of the working man.

The broadcast gave credit for uncovering Mrs. Pauker's alleged sins to George Gheorghiu-Dej, who was named new premier of Romania Monday night. Rumors have persisted that Ana and Gheorghiu-Dej were battling each other for control of the Red regime in Romania.

The broadcast quoted at length from an article in today's issue of Scanteia, the central organ of the Romanian Workers (Communist) party. The paper made these charges:

Mrs. Pauker and the two ex-ministers "have proven their anti-Marxist tendency by supporting the capitalist system. They prevented the regular provision of people with food and supported the enriching of the individual household."

"They lowered the standard of the workers and contributed to the rise in prices. At currency revaluation put through in January they withheld rates from many workers and employees 'because' they were against the finance plan."

They were counter-revolutionaries and brought about a state of anarchy.

The broadcast added that "the party unmasked the machinations of the three in due course. Ana Pauker has admitted all the charges which a plenary meeting of the Central Committee made against her."

Informed sources suggested that the Romania's shaky economic position was largely responsible for the changes. Milked constantly by the Russians, Romania is in such bad shape that even though she is one of the chief oil-producing nations of the world, there is an extreme gasoline shortage.

Emergency Would Drain Oil Supply

Atlantic City, N. J., June 4 (AP) — The world generally has enough oil but any new emergency would quickly empty its slim reserves, a Petroleum Administration for Defense official said today.

C. D. Davis, PAD assistant deputy administrator for domestic operations, said there are a couple of trouble spots: residual fuel oil and aviation gasoline, both scarce.

Except for these, Davis said, an address prepared for the Society of Automotive Engineers, the supply situation looks pretty good.

He said the world's oil reserves are being used up at a rate that is not sustainable. He said the world's oil reserves are being used up at a rate that is not sustainable.

Ike Invaded Europe Just 8 Years Ago

By DON WHITEHEAD

Kansas City, Kan., June 4 (AP).—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower moved confidently into a shadowy political future today just as eight years ago he sent the great Allied Army into the invasion of Europe.

This time he wore the clothing of a civilian, and not the stars of a general. This time his army was a citizen army of admirers who hoped to make him president of the United States.

Eight years ago almost to the day, Eisenhower made his historic decision to send the Allies into the invasion of France, from which there was no retreat. Today Eisenhower is carrying out his decision which will plunge him irrevocably into the struggle for the Republican presidential nomination.

He faced the big day among his hometown friends and thousands of well-wishers, refreshed by a night's rest and cheered by supporters who repeatedly assured him he could win his party's nomination in Chicago next month.

The general and his wife, Mamie, arrived here last night by plane from Washington. They were greeted at the airport by a cheering crowd.

The Eisenhowers were taken to a hotel in downtown Kansas City, Kan. Hundreds of people cheered along the route and other scores applauded as they entered the hotel.

There were no ceremonies. The Eisenhowers chatted with visitors in their suite briefly, but did not attend a "welcome" party in a basement dining room of the hotel.

The transition from uniform to civilian clothes seemed not to both the general at all. He was at ease in a gray pin-striped suit, gray tie, white shirt, tan straw hat with a blue band. The only military note in his attire was in his shoes. He still wore low-cut tan officer shoes with buckle straps.

Pickets Continue at El Dorado

El Dorado, June 4 (AP).—CIO oil workers continued to picket the Lion Oil Company's Chemical Plant here today as another meeting of union and company officials yesterday failed to settle the dispute.

Pat Shelton of the Oil Workers International Union's Bargaining Committee said no progress was made in the 4-hour meeting yesterday. The OWIU local here is striking for a wage increase and more pay for night work. The strike began April 30.

The Arkansas Supreme Court issued an anti-picketing mandate yesterday, but Chancellor W. A. Spear acknowledged receipt of the Supreme Court order for the injunction. He had previously denied the injunction and the Lion Oil Company appealed the case to the Supreme Court.

Some 250 members of the AFL International Association of Machinists are also striking at the plant for higher wages.

Many artificial lights are deficient in the blue end of the spectrum.

DOROTHY DIX Family Responsibility

Dear Miss Dix: My gentleman friend and I are planning a summer wedding. There is one subject, however, on which we do not see eye to eye. He has a married sister with three children. He has supported these youngsters ever since they were born because their father earns but an average salary.

Each week I buy little things for our home, but he still thinks he should buy clothes, etc., for his nephews. I tell him he should save every cent for us — and there's another argument.

I am afraid I can't stop him now. I never will.

Abilene Ready for Return of Eisenhower

Abilene, Kas., June 4 (AP).—Dwight D. Eisenhower returned today to an open field beside the backyard of his boyhood home, and plunged into the final phase of a drive his backers hope will win him the Republican nomination for President.

Thousands of people gathered beside the railroad tracks, which run in back of his former home. Some were former neighbors, some were the merely curious, and some were well wishers who came to Abilene from a wide area of the Midwestern states.

Very few were unaware of the political implications of the occasion.

Officially, it was a welcome home tendered by a small town to a famous son.

Actually, the ceremonies dramatized a new chapter in Eisenhower's life, his departure from the Army and his duties as supreme commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and his entry, on a personal basis, into the political arena.

As such, they may constitute a critical point in the effort to make him the Republican standard bearer next month.

His backers are hoping that a 30-minute speech today and a big news conference tomorrow will put powerful impetus behind the drive. They will be reported by newspaper, radio and television, reaching millions of people.

The two-day celebration began almost in the shadow of the Eisenhower family home.

It is a white two-story frame house, half hidden from the unpaved street by towering shade trees.

In the field nearby, ground is being broken for an Eisenhower museum. It will house the souvenirs and trophies that came to him from World War II.

Eisenhower and four of his brothers were to lay the cornerstone for the foundations of the building.

A parade with more than 30 floats depicting phases of his life was next on the program. The last float places him in the White House — a hope, not a fact.

Auto Workers Denounce Fair Trade Bill

Washington, June 4 (AP).—The CIO United Auto Workers denounced today as "bad medicine for the consumers" a House-passed "fair trade" bill.

But former Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland, an E. of the original Miller-Tydings Fair Trade Act, urged the Senate Commerce Committee to approve the bill.

Tydings told the committee that big retail outlets "employ loss-leader selling," that is, the pricing of a few specials at cut rates, to bring in customers, to crush small retailers. Unless something is done to permit price-fixing of trademarks and brand name items, more and more monopoly will result, Tydings added.

Donald Montgomery, speaking for the UAW-CIO, called the bill "a quick remedy for the economic ills it is aimed at."

The House bill, by Rep. McGuire (D-Conn.), is designed to restore the effectiveness of the Miller-Tydings Act. The Supreme Court had weakened the act by ruling that retailers who did not enter into agreements to sell at a fixed price established by the manufacturer were not bound against cutting.

Steel Strike Closes at a Critical Time

By SAM DAWSON

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The steel strike closed at a critical time—when the economy and the government's financial position were in a state of extreme tension. The strike, which had been in progress for more than a year, ended last night with the approval of a measure providing for the continuation of the program. The measure, which was passed by the House of Representatives, authorized the government to spend more than $1,000,000,000 in federal aid to states for modernizing and maintaining the highways during a two year period starting July 1, 1953.

The Senate now has approved four of 10 regular appropriation bills presented to it. Democratic Leader McFarland of Arizona is pushing hard to try and clear up a legislative logjam before next month's national political convention.

Included in the bill approved last night is money for the White House and President Truman's salary for his last 6 1/2 months in office and his last 6 1/2 months in office and first 6 1/2 months.

The measure must go back to the house for action on scores of Senate amendments.

As the government's steel inventories are shown by the fact that although a steel strike has been widely expected, there has been no rush to order steel to be prepared for it.

Over-all inventories of steel are on a low level, however, and particular types of steel are in short supply. A steel strike lasting a month would work these inventories of goods down—but that is something merchants and manufacturers have been wanting to do for some time.

Military production is another thing. Few of the hard goods of war are in abundant supply.

Sabre-rattling by the Reds in Berlin and Panmunjom adds urgency to the American armament program. And that's why many business men feel that Washington will find—and soon—some way yet to bring steel management and labor together and get the mills running again.

Senate Works 12 Hours, Passes 2 Bills

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The Senate worked 12 hours yesterday to pass two appropriation bills.

The long session ended last night with approval of a measure providing for the continuation of the program. The measure, which was passed by the House of Representatives, authorized the government to spend more than $1,000,000,000 in federal aid to states for modernizing and maintaining the highways during a two year period starting July 1, 1953.

French Warn Against Walkout

Paris, June 3 (UPI)—Premier Antoine Pinay's government announced today that any public servant who takes part in Red-ordered sit-down strikes tomorrow will be suspended.

The Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor, with 8,000,000 members, had ordered general sit-down strikes tomorrow in protest against the imprisonment of Jacques Duclos and "the American occupation of France."

The cabinet at an emergency meeting decided that any government or public service worker who takes part in the manifestation shall be suspended and subjected to disciplinary action.

"If they decide to be tough, we will be even tougher," Interior Minister Charles Brune said.

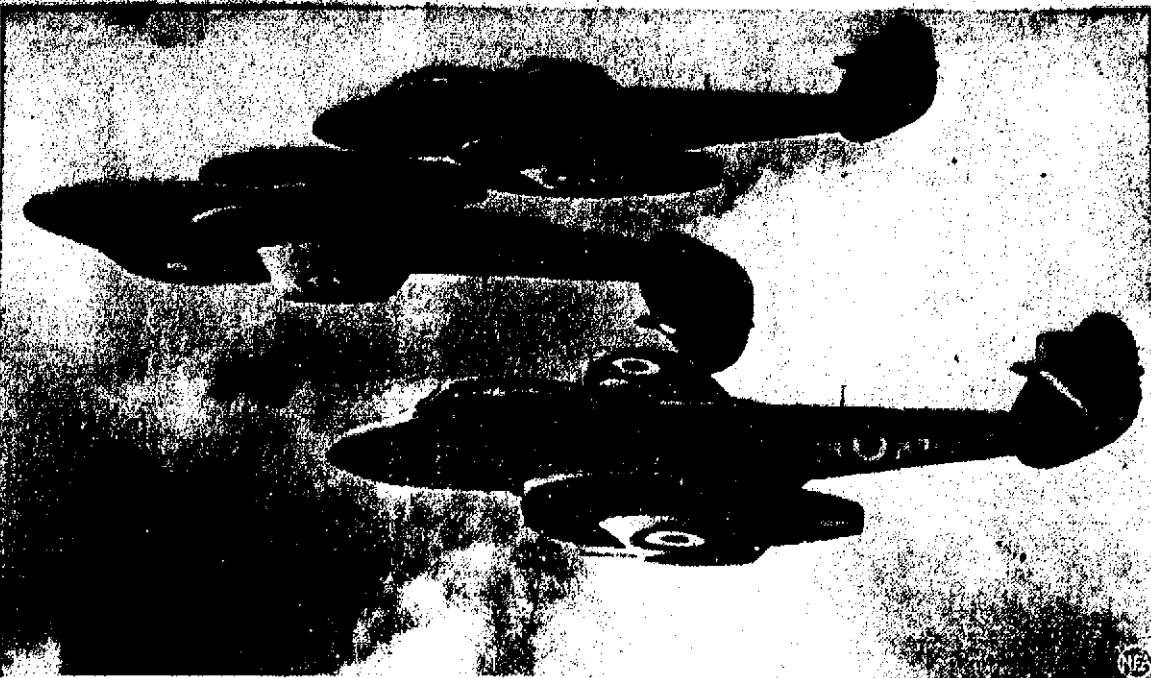

Pinay is battling the militant Communists on one side and fighting for the life of his cabinet on the other.

As the government braced itself to smash the Red-ordered strikes, Pinay decided to ask the national assembly today to give him a confidence vote on a sliding wage-scale bill. The bill forbids two consecutive salary hikes within four months.

"The government has decided that civil servants and public service workers who obeying the orders of the General Confederation of Labor, take part in tomorrow's manifestation will be immediately suspended and subjected to disciplinary measures," a communique issued after the cabinet meeting said.

"All dispositions have been taken to insure freedom of work (for non-Communists) and functioning of public utilities."

These dispositions included the mobilization to full strength all security forces in the Paris area and the cancellation of police and gendarme days off.

FLYING SANDWICH—Sandwiched between two other planes, the pilot of the inverted Gloster Meteor-7 jet trainer has only seconds in which to right himself. The speedy Meteor-7 can only be flown upside-down for 15 seconds, before going out of control. The dangerous maneuver occurred during a demonstration at the RAF flying school at Gloucestershire, England.

Taft Has an Advantage Over Ike

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 4 (AP)—Taft has one advantage over Eisenhower: He's had more time to toughen his skin against criticism because he's been in politics longer.

This doesn't mean Taft can't be needed. His opponents already have done one big needling job on him by saying the Republicans can't win with him. It's pushed him into the position of insisting he can win.

But, knowing how a man's skin owned transport, including the nationalized railroads.

The communique said the cabinet will remain in session during tomorrow's strikes to deal with any emergency.

Police raids on Red centers continued. The offices of the Communist newspaper "le petit varois" in Toulon were searched for 2 1/2 hours today. Documents and a locked strong box were seized.

Pinay, the first "strong man" to head a postwar French government, faces the national assembly this afternoon.

GOT THEIR GOAT—It's charcoal-broiled goat for Cpl. George D. Harl, left, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and Cpl. Thomas L. Turpin, of Ft. Worth, Tex., as they cook supper during their training as U. S. Rangers at Ft. Benning, Ga. Only food available was a small goat let loose in the woods by instructors. Harl and Turpin had to capture, kill and eat the animal or go hungry.

Center Recreation Club Meets

The Center Recreation Club met on Thursday evening at the Club House and was 100 per cent in attendance.

Mr. Gene Wood, who has recently can be made to twitch in public, Taft's naked Eisenhower before the general had time to get out of his army battle jacket and into civilian clothes.

This was while the general was still flying home Sunday. Lamenting the cancellation of the Air Force, Taft said in a speech that America's air power had begun to deteriorate several years ago while Eisenhower was chief of staff.

It was such a clearly-aimed attack on Eisenhower it couldn't be overlooked by the general or the newsmen who attended his last military news conference before leaving the Army.

The conference was billed as nonpolitical. Asked about Taft's statement, the general explained at length he believes a strong air force is of first importance and had always urged it.

It was a natural answer and could be considered a military reply to a question about military affairs. But Eisenhower didn't leave it there. He didn't mention Taft but what he then said could be considered aimed at him.

Eisenhower said he'd like anyone, who thought a war could be fought without foot soldiers to tell him how it could be done.

Taft, in his Sunday speech, hadn't claimed a war could be fought with out soldiers but he scoffed at anyone, without naming names, who put too much reliance on bayonets.

This is just the start. It seems unlikely that these two heavy weights, each trying for a victory over the other so he can get a crack at the title, may quiet down and go in for Gentleman Jim stuff from now on.

Methodists Open Annual Meet

Hot Springs, June 4 (AP)—The Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Church opened its 99th annual convention here today with more than 450 delegates on hand.

Delegates nominated and elected new members to both committees and boards this morning. Later in the morning session, a memorial service for ministers and their wives who have died since the last meeting was held.

The Rev. J. D. Montgomery of El Dorado officiated at the service.

The Conference meeting will close Sunday, when Bishop Paul E. Martin of Little Rock will announce pastoral appointments for the coming year.
